Sonoma Valley Invites Beavers

Prominent Club Woman Is Found Dead In Her Bed

Former U. S. Attorney Denounces Prohibition At Meeting

MRS. A. C. CLARK DIES IN SLEEP AT SANTA CRUZ

Glen Ellen Woman Succumbs To Heart Failure While on Visit To Her Sister.

Sonoma Valley friends of Mrs. A. C. Clark of Glen Ellen were shocked to hear of her death at Santa Cruz where she had gone with her husband to spend the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Clark left here just one month ago for the Surf City where they were to be near Mrs. Clark's sister and had anticipated a few months' change from their mountain ranch.

On Friday morning of last week Mr. Clark arose as usual and as his wife seemed to be sleeping soundly, he did not wish to disturb her. Returning later, and alarmed at her not having stirred, he sought to awaken her, but discovered that life was extinct. She had been a sufferer from heart spells and it is thought that she died in her sleep. A coroner's inquest held at Santa Cruz brought in a verdict of death from natural causes.

Deceased was one of Glen Ellen's prominent women, and an active member of the Glen Ellen Women's Improvement Club. She was a woman of splendid intellectual attainments and charming personality. Born in California 57 years ago and a resident of this county for many years, she leaves many friends throughout the state who will mourn her passing.

A delegation of Glen Ellen friends attended the funeral in Santa Cruz on Monday, among them Mrs. Eliza Shepard, Mrs. J. H. Johnson and Mrs. C. Sutherland.

REV. J. F. BYRNE HOME FROM EASTERN TRIP

Resident Pastor of St. Francis Church Visited Many Cities of the Atlantic Coast and Catholic Colleges.

Rev. John Francis Byrne, pastor of St. Francis parish, returned home in time for Thanksgiving, arriving here Tuesday evening after a two months' visit in the East. He was warmly welcomed by his parishioners and friends throughout the valley.

Father Byrne arrived in New York in time to meet a cousin, also a clergyman, who was returning from Europe. After visiting with him the Sonoma priest went to many of the big cities of the Atlantic Coast, where he was nicely entertained and renewed old friendships. He visited several of the large Catholic colleges and was an interested spectator at several big intercollegiate athletic events.

Enroute home Father Byrne was entertained in Chicago, where he has many friends.

The popular pastor declares that prosperity is predicted in the East, where everyone is optimistic following the recent presidential election.

Father Byrne is in San Francisco today where he will officiate at a wedding, returning this evening to Sonoma, accompanied by his mother, who has been visiting city relatives while her son was in the East.

This Turkey Shoot Was Not Advertised

The usual quiet atmosphere of Sonoma was startled one day this week by the sound of a rifle shot, and visions of a bank hold-up, a murder or suicide instantly gripped the minds of those within hearing of the shot. Every peace officer in town rushed to the scene of the shooting, which was in the vicinity of the Swiss Hotel. There they found a dead turkey, brought down by the unerring aim of a good rifle shot from a high roof where it had sought safety from the Thanksgiving axe. The sharpshooter did not know of the city ordinance which prohibits the discharge of cannons within the city limits, but he did know how to shoot and he didn't propose to have a high spirited turkey fly the coop and get away with it. He was admonished of the danger and advised to give 'em the axe next time, instead of pulling off this kind of a turkey shoot.

JOHN WAGNON SELL 2400 ACRE NAPA RANCH

John Wagnon, ex-postmaster of Sonoma, has sold his 2400 acre cattle ranch in the Berryessa Valley, Napa, to Architect Monson of San Francisco, who with his partner have acquired it for a country home. The property is beautifully situated and never looked nicer than at present.

Mr. Wagnon has returned to Sonoma for the winter, and will make his headquarters, as usual, with his old friend, S. Shocken, whose historic residence was once the barracks occupied by troops when Sonoma was a military post.

OPTION AFFECTS ONLY 250 ACRES OF RANCH

The option granted Attorney Gottsfeld by Mrs. Charmian London for the purpose of founding an art colony as a memorial to the late Jack London is not for the entire ranch, but takes in the former Hill ranch only, about 250 acres.

Mrs. London states that she would not part with the entire ranch and has never considered doing so, as it is very dear to her. She has made her home there ever since her late husband-author passed away, nine years ago, and although she has traveled widely, the Valley of the Moon is always home to her and her heart is here. She is devoting herself to writing and has won high praise from critics, both for her biography of Jack London, and other work.

Attorney Gottsfeld was in Sonoma Valley on Friday of last week consulting with Mrs. London and Mrs. Shepard in regard to the art colony plans.

Myrobolin plum blossoms in full bloom on Thanksgiving day was an unusual sight in Sonoma Valley this year. A beautiful spray of these early blossoms was brought to the Index-Tribune office this week by Mr. Katza.

Portland Ball Team Is Offered Good Accommodations At The Springs

Following the tip from Duffy Lewis, one of the owners of the Beavers of Portland, that the base ball team might consider Sonoma Valley as a training camp this season, local boosters and followers of the game made a careful survey of available accommodations and advantages to be found here and immediately wired Lewis that Sonoma Valley wants the Beavers to train here.

A definite bid for the team, setting forth what Sonoma has to offer, was made in writing by James Baines, one of the owners of Boyes Springs Park. Mr. Baines' offer included all the privileges enjoyed by the Seals during their training season here and gives the management the choice of the old ball park which will be shaped up to meet present needs, or the new golf club ball park utilized last season. The baths and swimming tanks at the Springs, golf links and other privileges are included. The team will be quartered at any of the several big resorts nearby which the management decides upon or the players may be taken care of by several nearby places.

Mr. Baines states that he has forwarded the offer to Duffy Lewis, who is in Hartford, Conn., and expects a reply very shortly.

In addition to the Beavers, it is known that the San Francisco Seals desire to send ten or twelve pitchers here for a work-out, which will add more to our base ball colony this spring.

TALENTED SONOMA FOLKS AID CHURCH

Congregational Bazaar and Entertainment Featuring Plantation Songs And Comedy Nets $400.

That the popularity of the old time darky show and plantation melodies is as great as ever was attested by the large attendance at the Congregational Church's Annual entertainment and bazaar Friday night of last week when "A Night in Dixie" was presented at Union Hall under the talented direction of Mrs. Carrie Burlingame.

The show which had to do with the jollification of the colored folks of pre war times down on the old plantation of the south was a hit from start to finish and proves that Sonoma Valley has some excellent talent and singers.

R. C. Bancroft and Mrs. Burlingame were the Uncle Joe and Aunt Dina of the cast, Mr. Bancroft in black face and pipe proving himself a subtile comedian. George Angove and Roy Bill as the two tall colored dudes in noisy costumes took the house by storm. Mrs. Ed Clements as Topsy and Miss Lucille Sutherland as Eva won the hearts of all. Topsy's make-up and antics were the occasion of great laughter and the song "Do Rae Mi" popularized recently by the Duncan Sisters, professionals, was exceedingly well done.

The introduction of a number of old time songs proved most popular. George Crowe sang "Carry Me Back to Ole Virginia" and "Go Long Mule" the latter with local verses. Mrs. Hotz rendered "Golden Slippers" and "Angel Gabriel. The Jazz band led by Lyle Campbell and the cake walk in which Parson Johnson, R. L. Dow, participated made a big hit. The chorus numbers with medlies of old negro melodies and spirituals were most excellent. Spencer Merz, R. L. Stanleigh, Mildred Erickson, Mrs. Edrington, Mr. and Mrs. Bancroft, Mrs. R. Hannon, Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Herbert Tracy and others all contributed their talent to the success of the splendid entertainment. Mrs. Burlingame was highly praised for her work and management of the excellent production.

O'CONNELL'S WIFE SUFFERS BREAKDOWN

Beautiful Young Woman Has Nervous Collapse at Boyes Springs as Result of "Bribe" Scandal.

Mrs. Jimmy O'Connell, the beautiful young wife of the former $75,000 base ball idol, has been very ill at the pretty Boyes Springs home where she and her husband have located for the winter. She had hoped to avert the threatened nervous breakdown which followed the expose of bribery in base ball circles in which her husband was involved. Looking very careworn, Mrs. O'Connell arrived here about three weeks ago and her friends feared that she had taken very much to heart the trouble which had come to her husband. Shortly after getting settled at Boyes, Dr. Thomson was summoned and immediately ordered Mrs. O'Connell to bed.

According to the San Francisco Call, influence is being brought to bear on the base ball magnates to reinstate Jimmy O'Connell. The Call says of the young wife's illness and of O'Connell's status:

"With his wife confined to her home at Boyes Springs following a nervous breakdown, Jimmy O'Connell, ex-New York Giant outfielder and principal in the 'bribe' scandal at the close of the National League pennant race, this week learned of an effort being made by Charles H. Graham, vice president and part owner of the San Francisco ball club, for his re-instatement in professional base ball.

"O'Connell is at his wife's bedside while physicians are making every effort to secure comfort for the patient. Her collapse resulted from the strain of he expose, said Dr. Thomson, one of the attending physicians.

"Graham, who will leave for the East, will make a personal plea for clemency for O'Connell. It is understood that before leaving Graham will arrange for a conference with Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis, high commissioner of base ball.

"In a letter to a friend, Graham told of the effort he will make with Judge Landis on behalf of the former Seal, who was sold to the Giants.

Welcome, Senator Slater's Christmas Carolers, Welcome

Senator Herbert Slater is directing the rehearsal of Christmas carols to be sung in Sonoma Valley this year by choristers especially selected for their vocal talent and ability as part singers, but the Senator fears the completion of the bridge at Beltane may interfere. Not at all, Senator, bring your choristers along; bridge any gap which may have interfered with the neighborliness of Sonoma and Santa Rosa, and in what better way than via the music of Christmas. If your jovial crew cannot negotiate the bridge at Beltane, there is still the bridge at the Judge Justi ranch, that noble bridge christened with the finest wine ever seized in a raid at Glen Ellen. The "Gloria In Excelsis" is being rehearsed by Frank Doyle, Wallace Ware, Charles Dunbar J. H. Williams and Carl Bundschu. Bring on your carolers, Senator, let harmony prevail between here and Santa Rosa.

BOYES IMPROVEMENT CLUB NOMINATIONS

Preliminary to the election of officers in December the Boyes Springs Improvement Club nominated the following members for the ensuing year:

John Main, president; J. W. Minges, vice president; T. McMann, treasurer; Horace Green, secretary; S. Rosenthal, sergeant-at-arms.

The question of a club house will be discussed at the next meeting and reports of committees filed.

The out-going president, John Benedetto, has served the club well but declined the office again, although he will do what he can to assist the organization in every way.

MET WITH TRAGIC DEATH NEAR ANTIOCH

John B. Read, who spent his boyhood days in Sonoma Valley where his father had a ranch on the present Cave Dale road, met a tragic death near Antioch on Tuesday of last week in a runaway.

Read was a farmer and while returning from Brentwood where he had purchased grain to seed his land the team he was driving took fright and ran away. The unfortunate man was hurled from his seat, the heavy wagon passing over him. When found the following day, he was lying face downward, his chest crushed, internal hemorrhage evidently having caused death.

Read was about 54 years of age, and leaves two daughters to mourn him, Mrs. Joe Higgins and Lucille Read.

He was the son of the late Edward and Sarah Read, and brother of the late Margaret Read Woods, Bennie and Gates Read. When a boy he went to school here in Sonoma Valley and about 24 years ago he married Miss Flora Love of Antioch, who passed away six years ago.

The funeral of the deceased rancher was held in Antioch November 21, by San Joaquin Lodge, I. O. O. F.

ANTI-PROHIBITION MEETING WAS LARGELY ATTENDED

Sonoma Valley Delegation Joins Plea Asking For Light Wines and Beer To Be Legalized.

"The prohibition law is the carrion of graft, it is the means by which hundreds of prohibition officers are growing rich through graft."

In this manner William J. Gloria, former assistant United States district attorney and legal advisor to Samuel Rutter, speaker in Santa Rosa on Friday evening of last week for the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment, scored the laws which prohibit use and sale of intoxicating liquors to those who wish to use them.

"Just as soon as this law is really enforced to the letter, then will it be repealed," Gloria stated. "Just as soon as the bankers, law makers, high officials and so on down to the working man find that they cannot get their 'little shot' then will they join forces to see that the repeal of the law is carried out."

"I quit my job as assistant U. S. district attorney in San Francisco because I was not in sympathy with a law that requires the breaking of another law to enforce," Gloria declared. "I do not sympathize with a law that allows the beating into insensibility of men and women by prohibition officers."

Gloria went on to cite several instances where raiding prohibition officers, who when they found no liquor in their raid, beat into insensibility a

CAROLINE KEECHLER CALLED TO ETERNITY

Beloved Pioneer Mother Passed Away Sunday and Is Laid to Rest Beside Late Son In Petaluma.

Mrs. Caroline Keechler, one of the beloved pioneer mothers of the Sonoma Valley, was called to the Great Beyond last Sunday after an illness of several weeks. She passed away peacefully at her home near El Verano surrounded by her loved ones.

Deceased was a native of Switzerland, aged 81 years and had been a resident of California for more than 50 years. During her long residence in Sonoma Valley where she reared her family of splendid sons and daughters, she was well known for her many neighborly acts of kindness, sympathy and generosity. Day or night she ministered to the needy and was in every respect a true Christian woman, seeking to do good in the world and teaching the lesson of honesty, thrift and high purpose to her children. A few years ago she was bereaved of her eldest son, the late Joseph Keechler, of Petaluma, and never ceased to mourn him. Even in her last hours of half consciousness she called for him, but was comforted by her surviving son, B. F. Keechler, with whom she has made her home for the past 19 years.

EL VERANO NEWS

By ARCHIBALD McKIVER

A drive is on at Boyes Springs to have the Beavers pitch camp at the famous base ball grounds this season. Duffy Lewis, manager of the team, was here recently and spoke favorably of bringing his aggregation of ball stars to the famous Valley of the Moon. James Baines, real estate man and progressive citizen of the Springs section, is keeping the wires hot communicating with the heads of the Portland team. The energetic realtor is working hard o have the boys from the North pitch camp this year at the Springs, to take the place of the Seals, who will go to Fresno to train. While Lewis was in the valley he promised to do his part in bringing his team to Boyes. Baines pointed out to the Skipper of the Portland team that the Seals and others who have trained in Sonoma Valley have always walked off with the pennant and that no other place in the state offered a better trainin; quarters, which in conjunction with the balmy climate and hot mineral springs, should put the athletes in tip-top shape. Cabanot's Resort will take care of the players if they decide to pitch camp here, and two ball parks—the one at the golf links and the old Boyes Springs training ground are available and will be put in excellent condition for the visitors. If the Portland boys come to this valley, many of their backers will come from the northern state to watch their favorites do their stuff. Sonoma Valley ball fans are waiting to hear that the team has decided on the former Seals' training camp and all Sonoma county is eagerly awaiting the word that the Springs section has landed the plum, and will give the players a great reception when the training season opens.

Mrs. Ella Nelson, after being the guest of Mrs. W. H. Pickens, returned to her Berkeley home on Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Danieli and Mrs. A. C. Chance motored to Richmond Sunday, where Mrs. Chance will spend the holidays with her daughter, Mrs. Walter Gaige.

Dan McCarthy, proprietor of the Annadan Resort, arrived home last Sunday after being the guest of Albert Rossi on a motor trip to Los Angeles and way stations. They enjoyed the scenery and hospitality of the Southern city. Mrs. Rossi and daughter, who have been visiting relatives in the South, returned home with the motorists.

The Sonoma Vista Improvement Club's entertainment and whist game last Saturday evening was a big success. Club members and their friends assembled at the beautifully decorated hall and enjoyed an evening of pleasure, it being the third anniversary of this progressive and thriving club. Members left nothing undone to make it a pleasant evening for their visitors. Vocal solos by Mrs. Evans of San Francisco were encored and other acts put on kept the large gathering in a happy mood until the wee hours of the morning.

Stornetti's ranch was the scene of another large assemblage of valley and outside city sportsmen at the second turkey shoot last Sunday. Some crack shots were on hand and some fine turkeys won, which were enjoyed by the lucky winners at the Thanksgiving feast. Over 100 birds were taken as prizes.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jensen were enjoying Thanksgiving with San Francisco relatives.

Thanksgiving day was fittingly observed in El Verano. Many relatives and friends of local people from other cities were here to enjoy the big turkey feed with home folks. Local business places were closed for a half-holiday.

Nick Dowdall, who recently had his left leg broken in a runaway, is getting along nicely at his home. His many Sonoma Valley friends will be glad to hear this good news, and all hope for a speedy recovery.

E. J. Franquelin was a guest of home folks and returned to Dunsmuir last week, where he is a veteran S. P. engineer.

Mr. and Mrs. William Chance were guests over Thanksgiving with San Francisco relatives.

Three million Italian women over 25 years of age, with the necessary educational requirements will be enfranchised under a bill the cabinet has decided to rush through parliament, putting into immediate effect Premier Mossoulini's change of heart toward women voters, for at present the restricted classes affected under the new bill may vote only in municipal elections. It is the intention of the cabinet, however, to widen gradually the scope of the movement until universal suffrage is reached. With two California women already announcing their intention for the governorship of this state, it looks like the fair ones are out for political laurels, but as our present governor, Richardson, has made a capable official, there is no doubt he will again be elected. The governor's policies are commended by both Democrats and Republicans, and many who did not support him at the last election are falling into line to again send him to the capitol.

Mrs. P. DeJong gave birth to a baby girl last week, Drs. Thomson and McGrath, of Sonoma, being in attendance. Mother and babe are doing nicely.

JOIN IN MOVE TO AMEND VOLSTEAD ACT

With Walter F. Price, president of the Santa Rosa Realty Board, and a well known business man, named as chairman of the Sonoma county organization committee of the Federal Dispesary Tax Reduction League, recently incorporated with the aim of amending the Eighteenth Amendment plans are being formulated for mass meetings.

Price was appointed as chairman of the county league at a meeting of officials of the organization and approximately 150 Sonoma county hop and grape growers, held on Wednesday night of last week at the Occidental Hotel, in Santa Rosa.

Dr. F. W. Buck, of Colorado, national organizer for the league, was the principal speaker at the Wednesday night meeting, while Price and Victor Piezza, prominent Sonoma rancher, also addressed the meeting.

The plan advocated by the league is similar to the Canadian system in effect in some provinces, whereby beer wine and liquor is sold only in government stores under government supervision.

The league is circulating petitions among its members requesting that the Eighteenth Amendment be amended to include the words "excepting the government" at the end of the paragraph.

In addition to this the league seeks to have the government permitted to license breweries, wineries and distilleries for the manufacture of their products for the government, to be sold to voters in government controlled stores or dispensaries.

The liquor would be sold for home use ony, not to exceed two quarts of spiritous liquor, 15 quarts of wine and 30 quarts of beer per month, according to the plan outlined.

The selling of beer at 20 cents a quart, wine at 50 cents a quart and whiskey at $1 a quart, prices which would allow a profit of approximately 100 per cent to the government, it is believed by league officials, would end the bootleg problem.

The league members advance as an argument figures showing the revenue under the proposed plan will approximate $1,117,000,000 annually, which, with the saving in cost of enforcing the Volstead Act, should cut 35 per cent off ahe total local, state, federal and income tax.

The Federal Dispensary Tax Reduction League is entirely separate from the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment. The Association is advocating a modification of the Volstead Act, while the Tax Reduction League seeks to ammend it.

Dr. Charles Lowell and wife motored up from Hollywood in their new sedan over the last week end and visited the Doctor's mother, Mrs. Clara Lowell, of Sonoma.

CONGRESSMAN PRESSED MORE THAN GRAPES

When Congressman Hill of Maryland pressed his grapes, let the juice ferment and become wine, invited his friends in to drink it with him and had himself arrested for violating the prohibition laws of our United States, he did a lot more than press the grapes and let them ferment—he pressed the point which has been so vague, that concerning the legalized alcoholic content of American home made fruit juice. He started something more than fermentation, too, for the Judge and jury acquitted the Congressman on every count. The court held that home wine must be intoxicating in fact, not in per cent, and that it was not a crime to make it and have it in the home.

Since then many officials have declared they will not make arrests and in addition is the moral effect of this ruling which encourages home brewing and fermenting in every quarter.

While this condition of affairs may satisfy and pacify the people to some degree, it surely cannot be anything but galling to advocates of prohibition, for it more than ever defeats the purpose of dry legislation, which can be justified on no other score than that it was to create a sober and non-drinking nation. With brewing, distilling and wine pressing going on in homes throughout the land, and officials winking at, if not sharing the "make your own" brand, we will become a nation of secret guzzlers, the heart of the home, shrine of childhood, supplanting the cafe and the former saloon.

As to quality, most home made stuff is slop and should be in the sewer. Instead, the law now confiscates high class wines and liquors and destroys them while seemingly permitting and encouraging crude, poisonous or unsanitary concoctions.

Now that Congressman Hill has pressed his point and won, when will clean-cut thought and action prevail on this question of prohibition? When will the government decided to give people who wish to drink something that is fit to drink and in a manner consistent with good government? In the encouragement of temperance, much may be done, but practical prohibition as it is now practiced and interpreted has a demiralizing influence from every angle.

BRING THE TWIRLERS HERE

Sonoma Valley let the Seals get away from us, but if there is any chance to land the Beavers ball team, let us, by all means, meet every reasonable requirement and continue to make the valley one of the most popular training camps in the country.

Our transportation is vastly improved, the camp would be more accessible than formerly and with two base ball fields, both of which are offered Sonoma Valley should be able to interest and hold professional base ball teams.

The interest the Beavers would draw from the North would bring the Sonoma training camp to the attention of a new clientele and make our famous Springs known to many who might not discover them in any other way.

Sonoma Valley, with its many natural advantages, including the mineral baths, is the training camp which will turn out teams who will bring home the bacon. We have the pennant winning country up here, the home of winners. Write that on your cuff, Mr. Manager.

A NEW CLASS OF "CRIME"

And now the joy-killers want to reform society for playing whist for prizes. Over in Richmond a minister with his delegation has gone so far as to demand from the City Trustees the suppression of this innocent pastime. The Trustees very wisely tabled the petition and will quite likely pay no attention to it.

Ministers who can find no greater work to do than to go after whist players have a very limited sphere of usefulness and are petty to a pitiful degree.

HAS BACKGROUND FOR ART COLONY

The proposed art colony and settlement in the Valley of the Moon as a monument to the late Jack London will be a beautiful tribute to the discoverer of beauty in Sonoma Valley the beauty made world wide famous through the romantic novel, "The Valley of the Moon." There is a wealth of poetry in the book, but no more than such a nature lover as London finds in every nook and corner of this little gem of California country Inspired by the matchless environment which Jack London enriched, we cannot imagine a spot on earth where the true artist could do better work or achieve more thon on the portion of the London ranch to be dedicated to those who would rise to the heights of fame or dwell in an atmosphere apart from the prosaic. We may never know whether or not there is life on Mars, but there are many who can testify that living is living in the Valley of the Moon.

WHY THE PEOPLE GIVE THANKS

Thanksgiving this year in the United States was one truly to be thankful for, a day of reflection that we had such God-given good sense to stay with sound government and retain President Coolidge, a product of New England, in the presidency of the United States. We are thankful as a people for this national expression of faith in the sincerity of the man who has been delegated to lead us and give thanks that the country of our forefathers is not trembling on the brink of a radical upheaval, but is safe in the harbor of proven good government where all problems will be worked our in sane and natural fashion.

THE NEW WARDEN FOR SAN QUENTIN

San Quentin penitentiary with its immense criminal population, is to be at last governed by a business man. Fred Smih, the new Richardson appointee, will substitute efficiency and intelligent supervision for drawing room methods of handling prisoners. Sob sister stuff will be supplanted by a business regime which when it is in operation will result in better quarters for prisoners, better working conditions, less dope and real rehabilitation.

As for the people of California, a new warden at this prison means "turkey" for the taxpayer.

Why don't the Socialist defender of LaFollette sign his name to the article he wrote qualifying Sonoma's vote for the radical. It was a splendid contribution to Education Week.

Education Weeks, the baron of school builders in California, should be celebrated, if he is not. Weeks the architect, plans school buildings on such a scale that every community in California is in debt to him. Sunnyvale is the latest.

GLEN ELLEN DANCE OF NATIVE SONS SUCCESS

One of the most successful benefit dances ever given by the Glen Ellen Native Sons for the Homeless Children Fund was that of last Saturday night when the London memorial hall was crowded with friends and members of the Order to aid the worthy cause. The Glen Ellen Women's Club gave their hearty support and served the refreshments for the dance. Music was by Les Perkins' Jazz Kings and won praise from the dancers.

The arrangements committee, of which Charles Pagani, Shirley Weise, and Irving Shepard were members, report a substantial sum netted for the noble work which the Native Sons carry on in the interest of orphan children.

Glen Ellen Parlor is in a flourishing condition and on next Monday night will initiate a number of new members, among them some old-timers who are to stage a comeback in the Parlor and will be given a hearty welcome.

Lieutenant Colonel Herbert Shaw, U. S. A., is now stationed at Baltimore and is able to be near his son, who is a student at Annapolis.

Dr. W. Roberts and Mrs. M. Anderson were week end visitors at the Carlson home in Buena Vista.

"'I'm going to see Judge Landis when I get to Chicago and I know he will give me a hearing,' wrote Graham. 'I intend also to see John J. McGraw, manager of the Giants, and President Heydler of the National League. Personally, I think it is the belief of those higher up in base ball that O'Connell will be fortunate if he is back in base ball in two years.'

"Graham has promised O'Connell, former Seal outfielder, who was sold by San Francisco to the New York Giants for $75,000, that he would make a personal fight for his re-instatement. While East it is believed Graham will interest other club owners on behalf of O'Connell.

"Since coming home from the East several weeks ago O'Connell has divided his time between Sausalito and Bakersfield, where members of his family reside. He has made no announcement of his future plans.

"Graham, who was managing the San Francisco Seals at the time O'Connell joined the team, has always maintained that O'Connell was 'made the goat' in the recent scandal.

"O'Connell was charged by Judge Landis with having attempted to 'bribe' Heinie Sands of the Philadelphia National League club to 'base up' in a game against the New York Giants just before the pennant race ended.

"Sands 'confessed' to Manager Fetcher of the Phillies and subsequently followed an investigation, O'admitting the part he played in the attempted bribe.

'Landis then barred 'Cozy' Dolan and O'Connell for life and gave Frankie Frisch, George Kelly and Jess Young, also involved by O'Connell, a clean bill."

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

Cecil B. DeMille's fine dramatic spectace, "The Ten Commandments" which will be presented at the Reavis G & S Theatre Santa Rosa, five days beginning Dec. 7th, is a most unusual cinematagraph composition, since the two parts of the story, continuous in theme and spirit, depict periods three thousand years apart. The introductory scenes are of ancient Egypt at the time of the Exodus. The scenes of the modern story are laid in San Francisco at the present time. In both stories the fundamental laws revealed to Moses on the heights of Mount Sinai are the dominating factors in the working out of the human problems involved in the two separate and distinct plots.

LIQUOR LAW IS SCORED BY SPEAKERS

woman and several men. He also told of cases where "blood money" in large sums had been accepted by "dry" officers. "And Sam Rutter and U. S. District Attorney Williams stood by and did nothing, even though they knew that such practices were going on," Gloria said.

"Never since their adoption have the Fourth and Fifth Amendments to the Constitution, which declare a man's home his castle, been so flagrantly violated, until the prohibition amendment was put into effect," said Gloria.

Gloria's forceful talk was was greeted with loud cheers by the audience of some 500 or 600 men and women who packed the Strand theatre.

The prohibition law is the season for a vast increase in the use of dope, declared ex-Lieutenant F. W. Beckett, U. S. N., who has investigated the drug and liquor traffic on the coast for the government.

He declared that when he was in China some years ago dope could be purchased for $5 an ounce and not a sailor in the service used it.

"As soon as they got to California which is presumably governed by laws while China has no moral laws, where dope sells for $100 an ounce, over 10 per cent of the naval men are hopheads."

The reason for this, Becker stated, was that the men were denied liquor, and fell easy prey to dope sellers.

He, too, told of liquor graft, in which not only bootleggers but officials of the government were involved.

He declared that while on the Mexican border, he knew of cases where hundreds of gallons of alcohol were shipped into Mexico for "perfume" and was returned in the form of poison liquor.

One bootlegger he discovered on the border even had the key to the international gate, Becker declared, and others, he said, had the customs men on their payroll to let tourists through after hours and to permit them to smuggle liquor.

"We did not have use for a stomach pump in the navy until prohibition hit the country," Becker said.

Sheridan W. Peterson presided in the place of Joseph Talbot, who was called to Berkeley.

Peterson first called to the platform Walter F. Price, who gave a stirring talk in which he scored the prohibition law as the cause of the crime wave and the cause of the insane asylums being filled to overflowing.

Crime has increased more than four-fold since the adoption of the anti-liquar laws, Price declared.

He also warned parents of the lives their children were leading since the adoption of the law.

"Watch the country dances," Price declared, "and you will find a jug in nearly every car and a bottle on almost every hip."

"Your girls and boys are drinking from these jugs and bottles," he declared, "and if you don't know in what condition they arrive home you'd better wake up."

Many Sonoma Valley people attended the Santa Rosa meeting.

GONE—THESE TURKEYS DIDN'T FLY THE COOP

Nine fine fat gobblers all crated up and ready for shipment to the San Francisco market disappeared from the Shainsky & Steiman ranch Monday night. The turkeys did not fly the coop but were stolen by the mysterious turkey thief who has been operating with considerable success in this vicinity this season.

Mrs. E. T. Casson was also a recent loser, the turkey fancier stealing five of her holiday birds.

High School News

By CHESTER HORN

Sonoma divided the honors with Santa Rosa last Monday evening when the Sonoma Junior Farm Bureau unlimited won by a score of 29 to 4. Santa Rosa won the 130 pound game by a score of 22 to 13. The game was scheduled for 4 o'clock, but by some mishap Santa Rosa did not arrive until 7:30.

A basket ball game between the Sophs and Freshmen attracted the attention of the students last Tuesday noon. It was a very close, and hard fought but clean game and by mere luck the Freshies put in the winning goal. The score was 8 to 7 in favor of the Freshmen.

Last Tuesday evening the Sonoma Valley Union High School teams defeated the local Native Sons' fives in a double-header. It was the first practice game of the season. The results were a surprise to the school as the Native Sons players are all former stars of the local high school and are heavier and taller than our students. It was the first opportunity which the school has had to measure its strength in basket ball this season. The score in the Class B team was 8 to 7, and the score in the unlimited was 14 to 13.

The Geyserville Junior Farm Bureau team forfeited the game scheduled for last Wednesday evening, to the Sonoma Aggies.

Assignment notebooks have been given to all the students. These books are for lesson assignments only, to be inspected quarterly. Any marks in these books other than the stipulated ones. will cause 10 per cent to be deducted from the owner's credits.

On Thursday, November 20th, the Girls' League held their regular meeting. The four girls who were elected to represent the League in the Welfare Committee were Mildred States, Edna Hansen, Jennie Downey and Mary Pensar. After the regular business several speeches on etiquette were given by Evelyn Valenti, Alta Weaver, Irma Cliffe, Jayne Eberhardt, Thelma Whitney, Miss Olsen and Miss Warthorst.

The Boys' League held their regular business meeting last Friday, November 21st. Five members were elected to represent the Boys' League in the Welfare Committee. They were Ernst Bosch, Roy Werner, Watson Garoni, Walter Carter and Clarence Dowdall.

A "bean feed" was held in the domestic science building last Friday noon. This was in the nature of a get-together on the part of the G. A. A., for social purposes. They had baked beans and hot chocolate, followed by short speeches. The meeting was conculded with several yells directed by Miss Fay Fowler. Miss Mathilda Bonneau was toastmistress.

The P. T. A. will hold its regular meeting on Friday evening, December 5th, following a program of pictures and a one-act play, in which Frances Murphy, Frances Perry, Irene White and William Duffin will take part. The play is entitled, "The Followers." Talks, as follows, are to be given by teachers on topics of vital interest to parents: Miss Olsen, "The Girls' Athletic League"; Miss Warthorst, "The Girls' League"; Miss Hoag, "The Social Program"; Mr. Golton, "Some Problems of the Dance." All interested are heartily welcome to attend.

The English I class students are participating in two contests. One is a contest of reading books, and a prize of a book will be given to the student having the best record of reading, quality and quantity being considered. The other contest is a "better speech" contest, the object being to eliminate such expressions as "I ain't got," "I ain't seen it," etc. Each student starts with 100 per cent. The student correcting another is given 1 per cent ,the one being corrected loses one per cent. The contest closes at the end of the first semester in each case. The prize has not been decided upon for the second contest

FINAL REPORT ON FOURTH EGG LAYING CONTEST

Conducted by the Poultry Department of the Sonoma County Farm Bureau, under joint auspices of the Agricultural Extension Service and the Poultry Division of the College of Agriculture, University of California, Berkeley, California.

This Contest extending over a period of 364 days, (Nov. 1st, 1923 to Oct. 30, 1924) and comprised of 36 entries of 10 previously designated Single Comb White Leghorn hens and two alternates each, has closed with an October production of 42.0 per cent maintaining to the last day a production which for the last and closing month exceeded all previous records of the Petaluma Contest. In fact the production results this year with the exception of individual hen records have eclipsed all records made in any of the previous contests at Petaluma. This feat has been accomplished in spite of a severe chicken pox outbreak which seriously retarded laying during the first few weeks of the contest. The records of the four high pens exceed the highest previous record for pen of ten hens in this Contest since its organization in 1919, and seven pens finished ahead of the winning pen last year.

The average production for the entire Contest flock finishing the 364 day year was 52 per cent or 185.8 eggs per hen. This production is 3.7 per cent higher than the average production of any of the three previous Contests.

The records of the individual hens in the Contest are characterized as being high average records rather than being some exceedingly high and others low. Out of the 326 hens which finished the Contest only six laid 275 eggs or more while 34 or 10.4 per cent laid 250 eggs or more and 168 or 51.5 per cent of the Contest flock laid 200 eggs or more.

Competition between the three highest pens has been very close throughout the Contest. The first three prizes for high pens are awarded as follows:

First Prize Pen—J. Walter Foster, Petaluma, Cal. 2308 Eggs.

Second Prize Pen—James Dryden, Concord, Cal. 2293 Eggs.

Third Prize Pen—L. A. Thornewill Santa Cruz, Cal. 2242 Eggs.

The winning of first prize by Foster's pen is particularly noteworthy since none of the birds in this pen are listed among the ten highest hens in the Contest. Only one of Dryden's pen is in the group of ten high hens and three of the hens in Thornewill's pen are among the first ten hens, being 1st, 3rd and 8th respectively.

The average cost of feed per hen for the Contest flock averaging 359 hens for the entire year was, mash $1.12, grain 95c, greens 29c, and shells grit and charcoal 3c, making a total cost of $2.39 per hen for the year. The total revenue from sale of eggs was $4.29 per hen which leaves a profit per hen above feed of $2.10 per hen

For the purpose of making a comparison with commercial poultry keeping, and figuring theoretically feed costs as being 60 per cent of the total costs of operating a poultry plant basing figures on the feed cost per hen in the Egg Laying Contest, the cost of keeping a hen in the Petaluma section during the Contest year of Nov. 1st 1923 to Oct. 29, 1924 would have been $3.98 per year with an average of 185.8 eggs from which was derived a revenue of $.49 per hen. This would leave a net profit of 51c per hen per year.

MARKETS
NEWS, COMMENT AND FIGURES

Chicago, November 22.

GRAINS—The grain markets fluctuated in a most erratic manner the past week with liquidation under way in December wheat and corn, but the inside figures were not maintained and at the last wheat was ¼c lower to 1c higher, the latter on July, while corn was 1@3c higher with July leading. Oats gained ⅛@¾c and rye ⅛@⅞c for the week. Despite the second largest run of hogs on record, provisions were strong, with lard 35@40c higher for the week and bellies up 70c, while ribs were 47½c higher.

Foreigners took futures on a fair scale early in the week, and there was also buying by millers. A lack of pressure was an outstanding feature and while the market was slow in getting going, toward the last there was a wave of general buying and short covering which swept values up with rapidity, and the finish was at the top. Export bids at the seaboard were advanced ¼c per bushel, with the demand for shipment as far ahead as April. Flour demand was considerably improved, both with country and with Minneapolis mills.

San Francisco, November 22.

LIVE STOCK—Hogs: Compared to a week ago. Steady; good to choice 170-200 poundh butchers scarce, bulk, $11; medium 125-145 pound California lights plentiful, weak to 25c lower, mostly $10@10.50; few cars 120-pound slaughter pigs $9.50.

The same storages one year ago contained 1,848,321 boxes, which is slightly less than 300,000 boxes above ths year's holdings. The distribution of apples, accordng to districts, may be given as follows: San Francisco bay district, 789,400 boxes; Los Angeles district, 728,232 boxes; Sacramento-San Joaqun district, 33,973 boxes.

There has not been any great increase in the holdings of onions since October 30, but the total has reached 135,780 sacks in all state cold storages. One year previous to this date there were 338,016 sacks in the same cold storages.

Very few potatoes have as yet been placed in cold storages, as a total of 61,554 sacks were held the first of this month, which, however, is considerably in excess of last year's holdings. HOLSTEIN OWNERS HELD A MEETING

On Saturday afternoon of last week a meeting was held at the Petaluma Chamber of Commerce office when a number of Holstein owners were present and discussed the advisability of forming a Holstein Bull Association. H. A. Weinland, Sonoma county farm advisor, presided.

It was planned that the members of the association purchase one or more high class Holstein bulls and that they be the joint property of the members and could be used on ranches, being passed from herd to herd, from one section to another.

The meeting held Saturday was a preliminary one, to find out how the owners of Holstein dairy herds regarded the proposition.

It will take two weeks for the farm advisor to complete the plans now in hand. The bulls will be owned only by the Sonoma County Holstein Association members, who reside within a few miles of Petaluma.

Since the better bull campaign was inaugurated a number of years ago through the efforts of W. B. Hopkins the dairymen of the county have found that by purchasing first class bulls they have improved their herds and have made money.

RICHMOND FERRY REPORTS RETURNS OF 16 PER CENT

Operations of the Richmond and San Rafael Ferry and Transportation Company were under investigation before the Railroad Commission Monday in one of a series of hearings on the commission's own motion on San Francisco bay ferry companies.

The report of the commission's experts showed the company has declared a 16 per cent return on investment annually since 1915. Because of improvements and acquisition of a new ferry boat this year the company will only be able to register a 12.02 per cent return, it was declared. P. E. Dufour, engineer, and Thomas G. Hughes, special accountant, submitted their report of their investigation. Charles Van Damme, president and general manager of the company, testified for the company. As in the case of the other hearings, which have preceded this one, the matter involved was taken under submission.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy O'Connell have taken a three months' lease of the Kelly home at Boyes Springs. Miss Mayme Kelly of San Francisco was up last week and made arrangements for the tenants who spent last winter also in these attractive quarters be given for the benefit of the Fetters Springs Fire Department will be held tonight (Saturday) at Fetters. Members of the department are working hard to make this ball a big success and the money derived there from will be used to make a bigger and larger fire department. Sonoma Valley dance lovers have expressed their intention to attend in large numbers. Perkins' jazz orchestra will furnish the music.

The Frecks of Western El Verano have been spending a few weeks at their recently completed bungalow at Dillon Beach.

The annual Thanksgiving Y. M. I. ball held at Union Hall on Wednesday evening, November 26th, was a grand success. The hall was prettily decorated and many outside councils sent many members. The music was excellent and members of the Sonoma Council saw that all enjoyed an evening of pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Gale and family of Winters were in town last week spending several days at the N. Dowdall home.

Misses S. and A. Kearney of Oakland have been guests at the Kearney home here.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. McKinnon of Concord and Ed Dowdall were visitors in Sonoma Valley Sunday, Mrs. McKinnon remaining for the holidays.

Mrs. G. Wilkenson of Martinez has returned home after a pleasant visit with Mrs. G. Cogo.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Evans and daughter were up from San Francisco Saturday evening, attending the Sonoma Vista Improvement Club's entertainment and whist party. They were entertained at the Beach home.

The Petaluma tannery at East Petaluma has completed a contract for the United States government for 10,000 mail bags of a special grade of leather.

Dan McCarthy of El Verano was a business visitor in Oakland Monday.

Mrs. A. Schlesselmann of San Jose has been a guest of her mother, Mrs. W. Wohlson.

John Basileu and Emmet Danieli, crack El Verano huntsmen, winged two large geese at Turkey Point on Sunday. They were the first pair of these birds brought home this season and Emmet, a disciple and friend of John's, is proud of his skill as a goose hunter.

A canvas back duck, which is supposed had been turned loose in Canada, was killed last week at Wingo by John Basileu. On one of the duck's legs was a band about three inches long, which was stamped "O. H. Jorduson, Stony Hellman, Canada." This is quite a novel thing and many sportsmen have been looking it over.

Mrs. Fred Clark, for many years a resident of Glen Ellen, died suddenly last week at the home of her sister, Mrs. Weaver, at Santa Cruz. Mr. and Mrs. Clark had been at Santa Cruz, where they intended to remain for the winter. The Clarks have a large ranch in Glen Ellen. Deceased was a prominent lady and had a large circle of friends who mourn her sudden passing.

The Cavaglia-Mouyer case, regarding the payment of a bill, has been settled out of court, Mr. Cavaglia paying all costs. Cavaglia recently hired Attorney Cowan of Santa Rosa as his lawyer, after losing the case at Sonoma several weeks ago, at which time Sonoma's brilliant barrister, A. R. Grinstead, represented Mrs. Mouyer. The case was tried before Judge Justi of Glen Ellen, at Sonoma, the decision being in favor of the complainant. George thereupon tried again, and lost. He is out some real dough, and is now satisfied with the first decision.

Milton Peterson, who has been spending several days with Santa Cruz relatives, has returned home. He made the trip in his benzine buggy and says the roads and highways are in first class shape for motorists.

Frank Canavari, former Sonoma boy, now an S. P. engineer out of Oakland, arrived Monday evening for a visit with Sonoma relatives.

Bob Dickson, popular deputy sheriff, passed through El Verano Tuesday morning enrout to Pocatello, Ida., to bring back Frank Elchilberger, a former Petaluman held in Idaho on a felony warrant, charging embezzlement. Dickson will stop at Boise on the way to Pocatello, where he will get extradition papers from the governor. The officer will be gone for two weeks. Sheriff Boyes had originally planned to make the trip for the prisoner, but was unable to do so. In order that none of the deputies would be slighted, several slips were placed in a hat and each of the officers were allowed to draw for the trip. Dickson was the winner.

A. Cartarina, Sonoma resident, was arrested Saturday on a speed charge and paid a fine of $10 in the Sonoma justice court. Joe Landell of San Francisco and J. M. Hennie of Sonoma were also cited for speeding. All were nabbed by Officer E. E. Wells.

HAVE LOCATED NEAR TRACY

Mr. and Mrs. Pat McMullen, who recently left Glen Ellen where for several years they conducted the Hotel Chauvet, were in town Tuesday from Tracy where they have located permanently. Mr. and Mrs. McMullen will conduct a service station two and one-half miles east of Tracy on the Stockton road, "the only place between here and Los Angeles," declares the genial Pat, who leaves a legion of friends here, all of whom wish him and his gracious wife success in the new field.

Mrs. McMullen was a prominent and active member of the Glen Ellen Women's Improvement Club during her residence in Sonoma Valley.

NEW LESSEE FOR THE HOTEL CHAUVET

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Lippi, formerly of Oakland, have leased the Hotel Chauvet at Glen Ellen from George Fetters, the owner of the property.

Word comes from San Francisco that William Sobbe, the former pioneer of Glen Ellen, is hale and hearty and continues to enjoy the Index-Tribune which arrives every week with news of Mr. Sobbe's old home town and valley. "We read every line, including the ads," writes one of the family in renewing their subscription.

Mrs. Allen McGrath and baby have been visiting in Berkeley, and Dr. McGrath joined his family in the College Town on Thanksgiving day.

HARRY SPEAS IN SONOMA VALLEY

Harry Speas, secretary of the Golden Gate Ferry Company, was in Sonoma Vallty on Friday of last wetk. Mr. Speas is very optimistic over the futurt of this part of California and declares the result of the election assures prosperity in which Sonoma Valley will share. He declares that the Golden Gate Ferry Company should have another boat to meet increased traffic and when a plan of financing the needed improvement is approved, the service will be improved that much more.

Speas, in addition to being a clever transportation man, has a brilliant army service record in Cuba and the Spanish-American War.

TRAPS FOX AND TAMES IT

Jimmy Mc Cray, a boxer who has been training at Parente's trapped a full grown fox in the Napa hills near Yountville and within a few days had the animal so tame that he could pick it up and it would eat out of his hand Jimmy and his "pet" were demonstrating their stunt in Sonoma one night this week. The animal tamer would like to have some one bring in a good live wild cat and he claims to be able to do the same with it inside of a few days.

WOMAN'S CLUB NOTES

The social meeting of the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club was held on Friday, November 21st, with Mrs. R. L. Watt, the president, presiding. The collect was read and the minutes approved as read. The card committee for the party to be held December 10 was appointed and comprises Mrs. H. Wicker, Mrs. J. Keiser and Mrs. W. Clewe. Mrs. R. Hotz, chairman of the last card party, reported the sum of $19 cleared.

Miss Mildred Burchard, who had charge of the afternoon's program, read a most interesting paper on the Redwoods. Most of us do not appreciate the grandeur of these trees or the unlimited wealth they add to California. Many different groves are being bought and given to the state, that these wonderful trees may be saved.

Following her paper Miss Burchard introduced Mrs. W. L. Sales, a past president of the Petaluma Club, and vice president of San Francisco district, as the speaker of the afternoon. Mrs. Sales, who is well versed on her subject, spoke on "Peace, or the World Court." There are 54 countries belonging to the World Court, and only four of the larger nations who do not and one of these is the United States. The whole address was really fine and I only regret that I was unable to take it down in short-hand, so that those who were not present might read it. Mrs. Sales also asked that the club write to Senator Slater and Assemblyman Anderson stating that our club endorses the Child Labor Laws and that they vote favorably upon them. We next had several selections from the Grammar School orchestra which is under the leadership of Miss Benson, the county music teacher. This orchestra has only been organized a short time and consists of six boys and two girls. These children play exceptionaly well and their music was enjoyed greatly.

Have your game ready for the ex-service men and women now in the hospitals and bring it to the club next Friday or send it to Mrs. L. H. Green, on Broadway. We are to pack the box Friday, December 5th, at the club house, at the regular meeting, so come and bring your package.
